

What:

Assisting with Summer Program for Teenagers (10 hours per week for 10 weeks)

Who:

Man or woman aged over 18 who is interested in working with youth to build environmental and community awareness

When:

Tuesdays June 23 through August 25, 8:30 am-4:30 pm, plus 2 hours on Mondays

Where: Ahimsa Village Community, 4022 S. Eagle Valley Road, Julian.

Compensation: $12 per hour pending receipt of grant. Otherwise this is a voluntary opportunity for gaining experience and building resume. Free seasonal produce is available.

Purpose: To prepare for and assist with activities that

- enhance connection of youth with the earth, plants, animals, and each other, and
- help them to maintain these interconnections when surrounded by materialistic and individualistic influences.

Inquiries: Contact Kelle Kersten at 355-0850 or magicjubilee@yahoo.com. Lack of transportation may not be a barrier to taking this position.

Our website http://www.ahimsavillage.org/

Teens' activities will include: Gardening, construction, music-making, cooking, baking, hiking, science and environmental education, yoga, dance, community-building activities, wilderness awareness and skills, art, investigating consumerism, and more.

Ahimsa Village is an educational center dedicated to teaching young people about sustainable living and gardening. Ahimsa Village is part of a 323-acre community land trust located in Huston Township, Centre County (about 1.3 miles north of Julian on Alt 220 – the 8th driveway after Yeager Hollow Rd when traveling north).